ADDRESSING GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

♦ UNFPA launched Aurora, an online platform that provides specialised psychotherapy for survivors of gender-based violence, including conflict-related sexual violence. The platform ensures that survivors have access to quality remote assistance in any part of Ukraine, including non-government-controlled areas and abroad. One week since its launch, the platform recorded three cases of conflict-related sexual violence, and psychologists are providing necessary counselling.

♦ UNFPA is supporting the national toll-free hotline for gender-based violence survivors and the hotline for survivors operated by LaStrada NGO. The LaStrada hotline has received during the reporting period 1,561 calls and online requests for support, including 397 GBV cases out of which 68% were reported by women. Since the start of the war, 8,471 people reached out to the LaStrada hotline seeking support.

♦ UNFPA is coordinating with ten shelters, eight crisis rooms, three day care centres and nine services delivery points across Ukraine, prepositioning supplies, distributing dignity kits and essential packs based on needs assessment and ensuring women and girls, especially survivors of GBV, have access to specialised care.

♦ UNFPA is working closely with Dnipro and Zaporizhzhia local governments to increase and strengthen efforts on effective response to gender-based violence and conflict-related sexual violence through the support of assistance and safe disclosure of gender-based violence, including sexual violence. These regions will be pilots project in collaboration with the Vice Prime Minister’s office.

♦ Seven UNFPA-supported Tatohubs (fathers’ club) are providing psychological counselling for families evacuated and seeking safety. Within the two last weeks, the tatohubs provided 324 women, 46 men and 75 children with 57 group and 244 individual sessions on increased anxiety, panic attacks, exhaustion and loss processing. Additionally, tatohub Zaporizhzhia launched a series of learning sessions for pregnant women, including evacuees from war-torn areas, about safe pregnancy and delivery. Since the beginning of the war, Tatohubs reached 1,589 women, 250 men and 118 children.

100 Days of War. I see Ukrainian youth generosity, engagement and capacity to organize & volunteer to help those most in need: youth, women, girls, older persons, & persons with disabilities, among others. Ukrainian Youth are truly an inspiration. We are together.
